Wimbledon – Skimming and Scanning Task

The very first Wimbledon began in London in 1877. It is the oldest tennis tournament in the world! When it first began, there was only one main event – the Men’s Singles. Now, there are five main events that take place during the tournament. Each year, Wimbledon is held at the All England Club in Wimbledon. Have you been to Wimbledon before?

Every year, the tournament lasts for two weeks and takes place from late June to early July. Why do you think the tournament takes place during the Summer?

Lots of people make the journey to Wimbledon each year and enjoy eating strawberries and cream as they watch the matches!

There are five main events that make up the Wimbledon tournament: Men’s Singles, Men’s Doubles, Ladies’ Singles, Ladies’ Doubles and Mixed Doubles. What do you think the difference is between the singles and doubles matches? There are also lots of other exciting events at Wimbledon including junior matches and most recently wheelchair matches.

The main matches are held in Wimbledon’s Centre Court. In total, Wimbledon has 19 grass courts, 8 clay courts and two acrylic courts. The Centre Court is usually used for just 2 weeks a year during Wimbledon. The longest match ever held at Wimbledon was 11 hours and 5 minutes.

The lucky winner of the Men’s Singles wins a silver gilt cup and the Women’s Single champion wins a sterling silver salver.

In 2013, Andy Murray was the first British man since 1936 to win the tournament.

Wimbledon – Skimming and Scanning Task

The very first Wimbledon originated in London in 1877. It is the oldest tennis tournament in the world! Originally when it first began, there was only one main event – the Men's Singles. Now, there are five main events that take place during the tournament. Each year, Wimbledon is held at the All England Club in Wimbledon. Have you been to Wimbledon before?

The tournament takes place from late June to early July every year for a duration of two weeks. Why do you think the tournament takes place during the Summer?

Every year, hordes of people make the journey to Wimbledon; the spectators indulge in the customary treat of strawberries and cream as they watch the matches!

There are five main events that make up the Wimbledon tournament: Men's Singles, Men's Doubles, Ladies' Singles, Ladies' Doubles and Mixed Doubles. What do you think the difference is between the singles and doubles matches? There are also lots of other exhilarating events at Wimbledon including junior matches and most recently wheelchair matches.

The main matches are held in Wimbledon's Centre Court, which has a retractable roof. This means matches can be played for longer as the court is protected from the rain and there are no rain delays! In total, Wimbledon has 19 grass courts, 8 clay courts and two acrylic courts. The Centre Court is usually used for just 2 weeks a year during Wimbledon. The longest match ever held at Wimbledon was 11 hours and 5 minutes which took place over three days. This famous match was between John Isner and Nicolas Mahut (who eventually lost).

The lucky winner of the Men's Singles wins a silver gilt cup and the Women's Single champion wins a sterling silver salver.

In 2013, Andy Murray was the first British man since 1936 to win the tournament – that's 77 years! Do you know anybody else who has won?
