

Statutory Spellings in Sentences Year 5/6 3

Use this bank of words to complete the next 5 sentences.

correspond bruise accommodate rhythm ancient

After a week's practise drummer Chris found the correct _____ for the song.

The hotel was unable to _____ the extra guests.

An _____ tomb was found hidden in a pyramid in Egypt.

Ally was left with a big _____ after an accident at the gym.

The newspaper article did not _____ with the original story.

Use this bank of words to complete the next 6 sentences.

hindrance frequently prejudice profession interrupt recommend

The train _____ passed the shop making the windows rattle.

The traffic jam was a _____ for the delivery lorries.

For the last time Samson was asked not to _____ the science lesson again.

_____ against women for many years meant they didn't have a fair chance in the workplace.

Everybody chooses a job to do after school or university and this becomes their _____.

The little boy could _____ a few books for his little sister.

Statutory Spellings in Sentences Year 5/6 3

Use this bank of words to complete the next 5 sentences.

correspond bruise accommodate rhythm ancient

After a week's practise drummer Chris found the correct rhythm for the song.

The hotel was unable to accommodate the extra guests.

An ancient tomb was found hidden in a pyramid in Egypt.

Ally was left with a big bruise after an accident at the gym.

The newspaper article did not correspond with the original story.

Use this bank of words to complete the next 6 sentences.

hindrance frequently prejudice profession interrupt recommend

The train frequently passed the shop making the windows rattle.

The traffic jam was a hindrance for the delivery lorries.

For the last time Samson was asked not to interrupt the science lesson again.

Prejudice against women for many years meant they didn't have a fair chance in the workplace.

Everybody chooses a job to do after school or university and this becomes their profession.

The little boy could recommend a few books for his little sister.