

A fronted adverbial is an adverbial which comes at the front of the sentence.

An adverbial is extra information about a verb.

1. Can you draw arrows to match the following fronted adverbials to the main clauses to complete the sentences?

Fronted adverbial
In the morning,
Because it was cold,
In the playground,
Suddenly,

Main clause
they heard a scream.
the children laughed and played.
the boy woke from his dream.
she put on her duffle coat.

2. Using the fronted adverbials below, complete these sentences.

Before long,	Suddenly,	Eventually,
In the darkness,	Reluctantly,	As a result,

- _____, she fell into the dark hole.
- _____, the fire bell rang.
- _____, the cat pounced on the tiny mouse.
- _____, he boarded the long haul flight.

