

A fronted adverbial is an adverbial which comes at the front of the sentence.

An adverbial is extra information about a verb.

1. Using TRaMP to help you, can you identify which of these fronted adverbials are time, reason, manner and place? Colour them in the correct colours.

Because he was scared,	At the end of the day,
At the stroke of midnight,	Anxiously,
Silently,	Before the sun came up,

2. Can you write your own fronted adverbials to match these main clauses?

1. _____ she scurried along the beach to the wooden hut.

2. _____ the boy tumbled into his bed and buried himself under the covers.

3. _____ the teacher praised the class for the good behaviour.

4. _____ he could hear a rumbling sound.

5. _____ the lady sat waiting for her train to London.

Don't forget to add in the commas!

3. Write 3 sentences of your own which use a fronted adverbial and a main clause.

1. _____
_____

Fronted Adverbials

DIFFICULTY:

2. _____
_____

3. _____
_____

